

LIVESTOCK CLASSES

Introduction

The cattle showing classes have long been an important part of Howden Show, attracting exhibitors from across the region and beyond. Once again, the standard of entries is expected to be high. In addition to the cattle classes this year, Skylark are bringing along their rare breed sheep for you to admire !

Cattle Showing – Terms and Conditions

Entry forms and the correct payment must be submitted to Mr Philip Parkin, 5 Market Place, Howden, East Yorkshire, DN14 7BJ. Tel: 01430 430319.

A pre-entry form is available from Mr Philip Parkin.

The closing date for entries is 30th June 2023.

There's an entry fee of £3.00 per class and cheques should be made payable to Howden Show.

Cattle must arrive at the showground no later than 11am for inspection by a vet.

Competitors must comply with Howden Show's DEFRA bio-security plan and movement passports.

Judging will begin at 1:30pm.

Chief cattle stewards - Mr Philip Parkin and Mr David Parkin.

Prize money of £25 for 1st place; £15 for 2nd place; and £10 for third place will be awarded.

Cattle Classes

Judge - Brindon Addy - Holmefirth

Class 1: Limousin/Limousin cross steer

Class 2: Limousin/Limousin cross heifer

Class 3: British Blue/British Blue cross steer

Class 4: British Blue/British Blue cross heifer

Class 5: Any pure or cross breed heifer (open to British native or Continental breeds other than those eligible to enter classes 2 and 4)

Class 6: Any pure or cross breed steer (open to British native or Continental breed other than those eligible for classes 1 and 3)

Class 7: Best home-bred bullock not shown in any other class

Class 8: Best young handler (under 18 years)

Class 9: Best calf up to 260Kg on show day

Class 10: Best home-bred heifer not shown in any other class

Special Prizes

The Supreme Beef Champion will receive a £150 cash prize and the Robin Screeton Memorial Trophy and sash. The Reserve Champion will receive a £50 cash prize and the Parkin Family Butchers Cup. The Champion Young Handler will receive the Paul Slown Shield and rosette.

Queries:

If you have any queries please contact the Cattle Stewards at the address above.

